By the QUEEN,

A PROCLAMATION,

Commanding all Seamen and Soldiers belonging to the Marine Regiments, and other Regiments, to Render themselves into Her Majesties Service.

ANNE R.

WHereas it hath been Represented unto Us, That great Numbers of Our Seamen and Soldiers belonging to the Marine Regiments, serving on Board Our Ships of War, and other Our Regiments serving on Land, have Deserted Our Service in the said Regiments; We have therefore thought fit, with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to Publish this Our Royal Proclamation, and We do hereby Require and Command all and singular Seamen and Soldiers belonging to any of Our Maring Regiments, That they and every of them, before the First day of March next ensuing, do Render themselves on Board some or one of Our Ships of War, in Order to serve Us on Board Our Fleet in the Marine Regiments to which they do respectively belong. For which Purpose We do hereby Require the respective Captains of Our Ships of War, to Receive and Victual them till further Order; and that they do Transmit to the Secretary of Our most Dear Consort, Our Lord High Admiral, Accounts from time to time of the Men that shall so Render themselves, and of the Marine Regiments to which they shall belong respectively. And We do hereby further Require all other Soldiers belonging to any other of Our Regiments serving on Land in England, or beyond the Seas, That they do, before the said First day of March next, Render themselves to any Officer of the respective Regiments to which they belong, or to Our Provost Marshal General in London. And We are hereby Graciously pleased to Declare, That such Seamen and Soldiers belonging to Our Marine Regiments, or other Our Regiments aforesaid, who have Deserted Our Service, and shall Render themselves in manner aforesaid, before the said First day of March, shall not be Prosecuted before a Court Martial as by Law they may be, but shall have Our Royal Pardon for such their Desertion. And We further Declare, That all such Deserters who shall not, before the said First Day of March, Render themselves according to Our Royal Commands herein before expressed, or who shall hereafter Desert Our Service, shall be Prosecuted at a Court Martial with the utmost Severity according to Law; And being found Guilty of Deserting, they shall be uncapable of Our Royal Mercy, and shall suffer Death according to Law.

Given at Our Court at St. James's the First Day of February, 1702. and in the First Year of Our Reign.
